

California Attorney General Seeks to Block Transgender Notification Policy

By Shawn Hubler
Reporting from Sacramento

Aug. 28, 2023, 6:19 p.m. ET

The News

Thanks for reading The Times.
We've updated our terms

Create your free account or log in

We encourage you to review our updated Terms of Sale, Terms of Service, and Privacy Policy. By continuing, you agree to the updated Terms listed here.

Email Address

or

By continuing, you agree to the updated Terms of Sale, Terms of Service, and Privacy Policy.

Enjoy unlimited access to all of The Times.
See subscription options

California Attorney General Seeks to Block Transgender Notification Policy

By Shawn Hubler
Reporting from Sacramento

Aug. 28, 2023, 6:19 p.m. ET

The News

California’s attorney general, Rob Bonta, filed a lawsuit against a Southern California school district on Monday, asking a judge to halt a new requirement that parents be notified when their child changes pronouns or gender identity.

We've updated our terms

We encourage you to review our updated Terms of Sale, Terms of Service, and Privacy Policy. By continuing, you agree to the updated Terms listed here.

California's attorney general, Rob Bonta, fielded questions during a news conference on Monday in Los Angeles. Marcio Jose Sanchez/Associated Press

Why It Matters: The lawsuit puts other districts on notice.

The Chino Valley Unified School District in San Bernardino County recently began requiring that parents be notified when their child asks to use a name or pronoun that does not align