

Read Next

Katy ISD adopts controversial policy on transgender

Gray Elementary in Lamar CISD is school district's newest...

Webster food truck opens new outdoor patio

SUBURBS // KATY

Katy ISD will require teachers to report transgender students to parents after 4-3 board vote

Claire Goodman

Updated: Aug. 29, 2023 12:20 a.m.

1 of 4

Tompkins High School junior Jarred Burton addresses the Katy ISD school board of trustees and meeting attendees on Monday, Aug. 28, 2023 in Katy. The Katy ISD board of trustees took public comments on how to address gender fluidity among students.

Elizabeth Conley/Staff Photographer

Katy ISD staff must now inform parents whose children ask to be identified as transgender, after the board of trustees on Monday narrowly passed a new official policy containing a number of restrictions regarding students' gender identity.

Following impassioned speeches by more than 100 speakers during the meeting's public comment section, the board passed the measure with a 4-3 vote.

VIEW COMMENTS

SUBURBS

New Caney ISD teachers, staff get raise under new budget

New Caney ISD teachers and staff will receive pay increases for this year in its more than $200 million budget.

BY MICHAEL GARCIA

MORE FROM HOUSTON SUBURBS

Meet The Woodlands township's 7 board of directors candidates

2nd annual Renaissance Faire returns to The Woodlands

Map: Montgomery County wildfires during August burn ban

Map: Montgomery County wildfires during August burn ban

TOP

ABOUT

Our Company

Interest Based Ads

Newspaper Delivery Safety Procedures

Terms of Use

Privacy Notice

Advertising

Your California Privacy Rights

Careers

CONTACT

Subscribe

e-Edition

Newsroom Contacts

Archives

Our Use of AI

Customer Service

Ethics Policy

Frequently Asked Questions

Corporate Subscriptions

HEARST newspapers

©2023 Hearst Newspapers, LLC